On December 10, 2008, a synopsis notice was issued to advise offerors of the US Department of Energy's requirement for operation of two conversion facilities at Paducah, Kentucky and Portsmouth, Ohio. These facilities will convert DOE's inventory of depleted uranium hexafluoride (DUF6) to a more stable chemical form. This notice also advised offerors that a draft RFP consisting of Section B, C, L and M would be issued for comment in the first quarter of 2009.

This notice hereby advises offerors that Sections B, C, L and M have already been posted to DOE's website and can be viewed at <http://www.emcbc.doe.gov/DUF6/index.html>. As a reminder, offerors should access this website frequently for updated information related to this procurement.
